

EDGARDO FERRARIPosition

Trademark and Patent Attorney.

Professional experience

He provides professional advice in trademark infringement, filing and prosecution, community trademark oppositions. He is also a patent consultant. He is a specialist in the chemical, pharmaceutical and biotech fields in the patent department. Directly involved in drafting, he also prosecutes patent applications both in Italy and abroad while providing patent validity and infringement opinions. He also assists clients in oppositions, appeals and patent lawsuits in the Italian Courts. Moreover, he is particularly skilled in solid-state chemistry and nano-technologies. Since 2004 he has been a lecturer for Patent Specialisation in the Milan University and is experienced in the trademark field.

Education

University of Pavia, degree in Chemistry.

Qualifications

Italian and European patent attorney. Italian trademark attorney and Professional Representative before WIPO and OHIM for trademarks and designs.

Languages

Italian (native), English.